FOREWORD

The Senior Class of Brunswick High School, Lawrenceville, Virginia, proudly presents this, the first copy of the Brunswick Echoes representing our new consolidated high school. This has been a wonderful year, new teachers, new classmates, new friends, new school! May our glorious days here ever remain among our cherished memories!

The Staff

BRUNSWICK ECHOES

DEDICATION

Some of us have known the guiding influence of our beloved principal, Mr. R. Jefferson Jones, throughout our school years. Others of us have had just this one short year. All of us love and respect "fessor" as our trusted friend. We, the staff of the first Brunswick Echoes, gladly dedicate this volume to him.

ALMA MATER - BRUNSWICK FOREVER

Hither ye lads and lassies all,
With hearts that are brave and gay;
Come at your Alma Mater's call,
And give us a song today.
Sing of the school we love so well,
Sing of the glad Springtime;
Weaving again youth's magic spell,
Into our musical rhyme.
Over the world so fair and free,
Wherever our feet may roam;
BRUNSWICK FOREVER, our song shall be
BRUNSWICK, our hearts true home.

Maidens and youths with steadfast eyes,
Facing the stress of life;
Come with your hope that never dies,
And give us a song for the strife.
Sing of BRUNSWICK'S autumn breeze.
That scatters the leaves of gold;
Calling our hearts from dreamful ease,
To answer its challenge so bold.
Whether we toil in the fields at home,
Or follow the seas afar;
BRUNSWICK FOREVER, where e'er we roam,
We hail thee our guiding star.

Mothers with hair of fading gold,
Fathers with heads of gray;
Come with your hearts that ne'er grow old,
And join in our song today.
Sing of the halls where work and play,
Brighten the Winter drear;
Echoing e'er with voices gay,
Of comrades so merry and dear.
Tho' many a bower of friendship new,
Dear to our hearts we hold;
BRUNSWICK FOREVER, we'll e'er be true,
To those that we loved of old.
